ABOUT US

Al Sahab Group of Companies

ABOUT US

Al Sahab Group (ASG) is an ISO9001:2015 accredited business that is setting new benchmarks in performance and excellence. Our customer is front and centre of everything we do.

ASG is heavily investing in human resources and technology to further establish ourselves as a local and regional quality service provider. Our focus is on optimizing customer satisfaction through provision of qualitative services underpinned by practices and delivery methods conforming to proven international standards. We are already establishing a corporate membership with the British Institute of Cleaning Science (BICS) and are developing an accredited training centre of excellence in Qatar for our large and growing cleaning offering.

OUR MISSION

To deliver sustainable services that empower our people, serve the community and excite our customers with a blend of great people, technology and processes

OUR VISION

To be the natural supplier of choice for solutions that simply deliver and delight our customer

QUALITY POLICY

QUALITY POLICY

Al Sahab Group (ASG) defines our quality by employing the right people, training and by providing the right equipment and support. We are agile by design and have change embedded in our DNA.

We care about our people and our customers. Only by working as one can we all reach our objectives and goals.

OUR PEOPLE

OUR PEOPLE

We are a people business. Without great people, a great environment and excitement within our own teams, we cannot excite our customers with great service.

Our staff enjoy monthly sporting events and team-building exercises to allow everyone to have fun while giving back to Qatar. This underpins our commitment to providing a clean planet with regular beach clean-ups and other social and community events.

People are paramount to us, so we invest in recruiting their best, ensuring their training and provide them with great facilities and equipment. We need to see happy faces everyday going that extra mile to delight and excite our customers.

ASG publicizes the achievements of its performers, and their experiences and success stories are shared and celebrated. The winners are brought together on a common platform to inspire others during the get-togethers and annual parties. Tokens of appreciation are conferred on the best performers on a regular basis.

WE ARE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Al Sahab Group (ASG) is a culturally diverse business employing the best talent from around the world. The Directors and Management Board DO NOT discriminate based on sex, race, colour, religion, nationality, ethnic origin, age, orientation, marital status or disability. We see and treat our diversity positively.
